SOME FACTS ABOUT KCC

- KCC is a private, not-for-profit, 501(c)(3) entity organized and operated by volunteers solely for the benefit of the public.
- KCC receives no sustaining funding from any government entity.
- Its volunteer board of directors receives no compensation in any form, nor is KCC's property owned by them, but as a body the board is responsible for managing KCC's assets.
- All KCC's income comes from its various fund-raising events, facility-rental fees, and direct contributions from its supporters. Without this, it would not survive.
